WHAT ABOUT THE LIQUOR RESTRICTIONS IN CARMEL'S DEEDS

There is a point of law involved in the clause in Carmel deeds providing that property reverts to the original vendor if liquor is ever sold on the premises, that in fairness to all concerned should be settled by court decision.

Mr. Devendorff of the Carmel Land Company feels that unless he makes an effort to enforce this stipulation in the deeds he has broken faith with those to whom he sold property and he wants to hear from those who object to the situation as it now stands. He is now at work preparing the facts for court action and will be glad to have anyone cooperate with him in the suit.

While at present there may be a passive interest in the situation, there still remains the clause in the deed, which, if the courts hold it valid, can cause people to lose their property absolutely if the condition continues. There are always unscrupulous title experts hunting for these very things and once the property gets in the clutches of these shysters, he will show no mercy whatever.

THE CLINIC MUST REMAIN OPEN

Dr. Gray made a profound statement at the organization meeting of the committee charged with raising funds to keep the Grace DeFre Velle Clinic open as a general hospital when he said, "We cannot let this wonderful building with its possibilities for doing so much good be closed and taken over by the squirrels and birds." And that is what is going to happen unless the necessary $25,000 is raised to make alterations that will permit the building to be operated as a general hospital. Mrs. Harris will provide that the building shall never be sold. She left what she thought was a sufficient endowment fund, $500,000, to perpetuate it as a metabolic clinic, but unfortunately the endowment is not enough to do this.

The peninsula has an opportunity to keep this fine place open as a hospital and operate its $400,000 building without one dollar of cost for overhead. And that is a thing that very few towns ever have offered to them. To do this, however, $25,000 is needed for changes to convert it into a general hospital and for this the general public is being asked for donations of any amount from $1.00 up. If you can't give, boost, for the proposition must go over.

What a splendid opportunity this is for some one to donate the entire amount in loving memory of some one who has passed into the Great Beyond!

THREE FINE PUBLIC OFFICIALS RETIRE

John Jordan, Herbert Heron and Clara N. Kellogg this week retired from the city council and their official passing is generally regretted. They have given generously of their time for the welfare of Carmel, and their efforts are not without appreciation. Their views on the great number of questions that came up in their terms of office have not always been in keeping with those of everyone, but whatever else we may say, they were conscientious and put forth every effort to do what they thought was the most practical and best for Carmel. Although they are now out of office, it is to be hoped that these valuable citizens will continue to have their same loyal interest in Carmel's governmental welfare and help the present officials with the experience they gained from their tenure of office.

COMMUNISTIC ACTIVITY MUST BE WATCHED

"Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire" can well apply to the present endless dispatches of Communistic activity in the United States. It is one thing to scoff at the impossibility of Red invasion and Communistic organizations but the evident fact is that work of this kind is going on generally, or it would not be so frequent in the news.

The government's policy of ridiculing these reports and whitewashing investigations is probably gratifying to the Communists but not so comforting to the thinking individual. The best time to put out fire is in the beginning.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION DOING GOOD WORK

Through protests made to Washington officials by the Carmel Business Men's Association, the six o'clock mail from Carmel to San Francisco has been resumed. Taking away this service delayed and disrupted city connections all out of reason with the petty economy it accomplished. If all organizations would follow the example of the Carmel Business Association and protest to the government the petty economies put into effect, the government would soon realize that NRA principles are expected from them as well as from the public in general.

Robles del Rio Inn Popularity Growing

ROBLES DEL RIO IS

BUSY PLACE SUNDAY

Robles del Rio was a busy place Sunday, many going for the dinner, others for the swimming, others for golf and others for the outing and still others to look after their property there.

Truly, this lovely spot is a wonderful place to live or to visit and is developing rapidly so that it bids fair to be a very popular resort in the near future.

The Inn under the management of W. R. Mawson excels in service and cuisine, with its tables set where the guests may look out over gorgeous scenery, resplendent in snowy linen and with waiters moving so deftly one is not aware of their presence.

Scene at Robles Del Rio, looking toward the fine heated pool.

After a sumptuous dinner, the Sun folk walked down a lovely, winding road to the home of Conrad Immelman. Mr. Immelman himself was there Sunday and working every minute on his yard, raking, digging, spading, making every stroke count for the beautification of the large yard which is enclosed by a new fence. He has recently had a hot water heating system installed in his cottage, which consists of four bedrooms, dining room, living room and kitchen and two baths. Mr. Immelman has terraced the back yard and has set an orchard of all kinds of fruit trees. The grape fruit are already several inches in diameter with still more blossoms hanging on, and the orange tree is in full bloom. One of the nicest things about the place is the new barbecue pit and with it go long benches and tables so the place is an ideal spot for entertaining.

Later in the afternoon we drove down to the Koch place and had the pleasure of seeing some of Mr. Koch's interesting marines as well as his picturees made on point Lobos. His pictures all have that quality so essential in marines, atmosphere and reflect the ever changing moods of the sea. Some of his canvasses have the warmth of the setting sun, others the power of great breaking waves. His cypress trees on Point Lobos have all the angular characteristics of Monterey cypress and many of his exhibitions in the east have featured pictures on Lobos with the cypress trees predominating.

Robles del Rio is an ideal spot to spend an hour, a day or a life time.

SERRA FESTIVAL PLANS RAPIDLY DEVELOPING

The executive committee of the Serra Festival met last Saturday afternoon and considered many plans for the forthcoming pageant in August. It was first decided that the official name of the enterprise would be the Serra Festival, and that the play itself should be known as "The Apostle of California."

One of the most important things now before the committee is the matter of raising the initial funds to start the proposition and several ways were considered. It has been tentatively decided to produce some kind of a play, probably a minstrel, with a large cast in which the various bodies and associations on the peninsula could have some part. An effort will be made to get the Boy Scouts, the American Legion, some of the cowboys, and a team from the presidio to take some part. Where or when the play will be given was not decided upon but it will possibly be in May and since the Sunset School auditorium is the only building with a seating capacity large enough, it may be given there.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS TO MEET IN WATSONVILLE

The Knights Templar are looking forward to an interesting meeting to be held in Watsonville May 8. About sixteen members from this locality plan to attend, meeting at the office of G. S. Curtis, at 120 Carmelita in Monterey at 6:45 o'clock that evening.

The hosts are planning for a strawberry feed. Those who plan to go are asked to call Clayton Shaff at 5145 or 8113, Monterey.

The J. C. L. Fish cottage is occupied this week by the Misses Wormald of San Francisco.

THE LITTLE SHOP IN LITTLE HOUSE MOVES

With the moving to Monterey of the Russian Tea Room and Gift Shop, their location has been taken by Mrs. Edwards for "The Little Shop in the Little House," which she is moving from its former location on Lincoln street.

Those who have been in the habit of stopping at the Russian Tea Room on their way to and from the library will be glad to learn that they may still have a pleasant place to drop in and they will enjoy seeing the lovely things which Mrs. Edwards has in stock.

FILIPINO CONCERT NEXT AT DENNY-WATROUS

A most novel and unique attraction is coming to the Denny-Watrous Gallery next week, Saturday the 28th in the way of an all-Filipino concert. Aspre, Filipino violinist and his Manila String Orchestra with Rosita Lamont, soprano entertainers.

On actabina, laud, banduria, guitar and violin the eight members of the Manila Orchestra will play Filipino music on their Filipino instruments.

Aspre was first to introduce Philippine music over the air, and he is heard regularly over KIX. He is a composer as well as a violinist, and director of his String Orchestra.

Rosita Lamont was the star of the first Philippine Talking picture, "The Rose of Manila," which is now being shown in Hollywood. She will sing two groups of songs, in person, accompanied by the String Orchestra and also by Gladys Steele, an American pianist of KIX studios.

Salinas and local Filipinos, as well as their American friends, are deeply interested in this first Carmel presentation of an all-Filipino program.

OLD COUNCIL RETIRES; NEW ONE SWORN IN

With City Clerk Saides Van Brower in the chair, the new and old councils convened on Monday evening, the old members for their last official acts and the new to take the oaths of office.

In a distinctive and pleasing manner, Mayor Catlin placed in nomination for the office of mayor for the coming year, James H. Thoburn, chosen by the people in an overwhelming majority at the recent election. Councilman Norton seconded the nomination and Councilman Burge moved the nominations be closed.

In substance Mr. Catlin said: "I place in nomination for mayor James H. Thoburn, who has never served the city in a civil capacity but who has rendered great service as a fine citizen, public spirited business man and good neighbor. He has rendered a greater service because he served well on the battlefields of the nation."

Mr. Catlin, in his retiring speech paid tribute to the outgoing officers. Miss Kellogg, he said, had left the city much more beautiful than it was when she took office four years ago

Clara N. Kellogg Retires After Eight Years Public Service

CARMEL CITIZENS JOIN

IN GIVING HER PRAISE

On every tongue is praise for Miss Clara N. Kellogg, retiring member of the Sunset School trustees and of the city council.

Miss Kellogg served well and faithfully on the school board for eight years and for the past four years did double duty by serving also on the city council.

When Miss Kellogg was asked for her history in office, she replied, "Eight years with the Sunset trustees and four with the council. That is the whole history."

But that is not the whole history. It is only Miss Kellogg's way of minimizing what she has done for the public. Those eight years meant years of sacrifice for no one can bind himself to attend meetings regularly as she did without sacrifice.

They represent sacrifice because they took her mind from things she could have been doing for her own pleasure to decide on things for the public welfare. No doubt she spent many hours on deciding whether a tree should stand for the sake of tradition and its own beauty, or whether it should be cut on demand of some property owner. As street commissioner, she met with many knotty problems but never did she shirk her duty.

As a Sunset trustee she stood up under bickerings and factional fights and calmly went her way doing what she thought best for all concerned. No tribute is too high for this woman who has been so faithful and the whole city joins with Carmel Sun in these words of praise. We are all thankful to be able to let Miss Kellogg know that she is appreciated.

May she live long and enjoy a happy life!

Carmel's Genius Mayor John Catlin Surrenders Gavel to James H. Thoburn

as street and park commissioner.

To Mr. Jordan he gave the credit of being a "generous enemy and a faithful friend." Herbert Heron, he said, had with his own fame as actor and poet, brought fame to the city of Carmel during his term as mayor.

Speaking for himself, Mr. Catlin said, "It is an honor to have served as mayor of this fine American city. It is without doubt the most individualistic city in the confines of the state."

When the nine absentee ballots that Mr. Thoburn had received seven of the nine; Mr. Burge eight of the nine; Mr. Howard, 6 and Mr. Rowntree four, thus making no change in the results as they stood last week, the new councilmen being Thoburn, Rowntree and Burge.

After Mr. Thoburn took his seat as mayor he made the following appointments: commissioner of streets and parks, J. A. Burge; commissioner of fire and police Robert Norton; commissioner of lights and water, Bernard Rowntree; commissioner of health and safety, John M. Catlin.

The new council will meet in adjourned session next Wednesday evening, April 25, at 7:30.

NEW YARN SHOP IS OPENED ON DOLORES

The Misses Deakin and Mrs. Dorothy Biglund this week opened up the Bernat Yarn Shop on Dolores street in what is usually called the Comstock building, next door to the flower shop.

The ladies have made the place cozy with rugs, table and chairs and those who buy yarns for knitting will receive free instruction from Mrs. Biglund, who is an expert in that line.

Misses Deakin have carried on their business from their home for many months and have a large number of customers. They also do hand-loom weaving in order to supply skirt lengths to match the knitted sweaters where the customer desires.

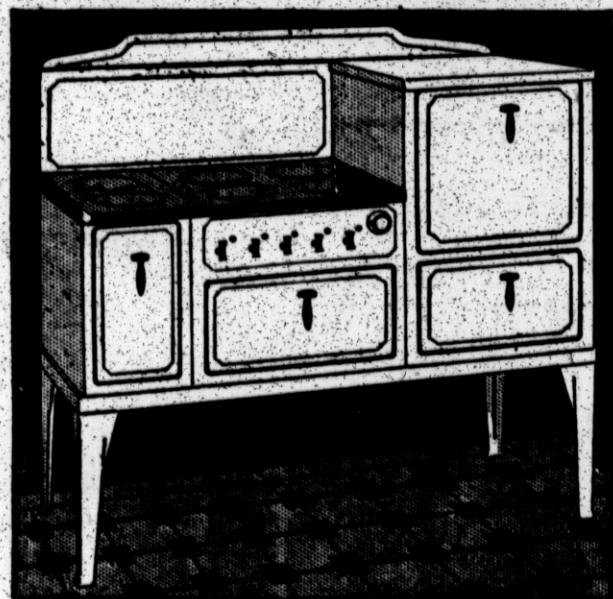

PACIFIC GROVE PEOPLE ENJOY PARTY AT LUCCA

As a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kemmerer who are leaving for Mead, Colo., to make their home, a group of friends from Pacific Grove drove to Carmel Wednesday evening for an Italian dinner at the Lucca, followed by an evening at cards.

Mr. Kemmerer has been in the employ of the Hayward Lumber company.

On Friday afternoon, April 13, the King Arthur Circle of the Knighthood of Youth club of Carmelo school held a program to which parents and friends of the students were invited. The program was as follows: Part 1: Play—The Knights of the Silver Shield. The cast: Sir Roland, Harold Meadows; Sir Eric, Nels La Rue; Lord of the Castle, Leo Swift; Princess, Bernadine Meadows; Squire, Paul Trotter; Knights, Richard Meadows, Charles Gensel, Paul Gonzales, Bruno Abluton; Pages: Bob and Jack Gensel, Ben and Gene Hernandez; Herald: Elmer La Rue; Ladies of the Court; Lavinia Oswald, Chisato and Uniko Tsubouchi; Old Woman, Mariko Tsubouchi; Giant, Gerald Matney. Part 2: Group of two-part songs by grades 5 to 8. Part 3: Comedy. Hans and the Golden Goose. All the children in the school had parts in this delightful comedy.

Pins earned since the last K. of Y. program were presented Nels La Rue, Elmer La Rue, and Paul Gonzales received Squire pins. Chisato and Uniko Tsubouchi, aide pins. The program closed with the singing of the club song. There was also an exhibition of the children's work. At the close of the program, refreshments were served.

Wednesday evening a surprise party was given in honor of Mark Wilmot on the occasion of his birthday. Surprising him were his wife and the following sons and daughters: Mr. and Mrs. Ora Vasquez and family; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Payne and family of Salinas; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Large; Mr. and Mrs. Pierson Wilmot of Pacific Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilmot of Monterey.

In honor of Mrs. Ed Payne and her daughter, May, a delightful dinner party was given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Anna Kitchen at the Carmel Inn. After dinner, cards were enjoyed. Friends and relatives of the couple were invited to give them a merry send-off. Mrs. Payne and May left Wednesday for Tassajara Hot Springs where they will spend the summer.

The rodeo held at the San Clemente ranch Sunday provided all the thrills and spills of the usual rodeo plus a rather exciting climax when Miss Charlotte Hayden of San Francisco became lost in the wooded hills near the ranch. Miss Hayden was riding a horse loaned to her by Fred Nason, nearby rancher. When, after several hours she failed to return, a searching party was formed. Many joined in the search, but it was Leo Vasquez who found Miss Hayden several miles from the San Clemente ranch. Her clothes were badly torn from the thick brush she had ridden through in an effort to find her way back to the rodeo grounds. Aside from being scratched up, she was none the worse for her experience.

At the rodeo in the steer-riding event, Marvin Roberts of the Gablian Riding club took first place; Mickey Roberts of Monterey, second and Jess Howard of Merced, third. Single steer-roping, Del Owens of Hollister, first; Sam Mathews, Metz, second; Agnew Shea, Hollister, third. Team roping, Cliff Hicks and Tex Raiburn, first; Jack Taylor and Albert Hillman second. Del Owens took another first in the calf-roping with John Vance of San Jose, second and M. Inglesman of Santa Cruz, third. Bronc riding: Slim Wilson, Hollister, first; George Fiek, Salinas, second and Buck Williams, Salinas, third. Awards were made to the winners and those who placed in the various events.

Miss Aurora Bottero of San Francisco arrived in Monterey Sunday where she is staying with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bottero. Miss Bottero plans to be in Monterey for some time and will assist her brother in the bakery. Miss Bottero formerly lived in the valley and her many friends will be glad to hear that she is back on the peninsula even if only for a short time.

Mrs. W. T. Winslow and her daughter, Mrs. Lela Wolter, spent the week-end in Los Angeles. They were accompanied by little Lucy Wolter and her brother, Luis. While there they visited with Mrs. Wolter's aunt Miss Martha Winslow. The weather was ideal and they had a very pleasant trip.

POINT LOBOS BEING

CLEARED OF DEBRIS

In order to eliminate as much as possible the fire hazard and to protect the cypresses on Point Lobos, R. H. Wilson, park custodian and a crew of eight CWA men, are taking out the old dead limbs.

An effort is being made to leave the ground in as natural a state as possible.

The work is being done by order of the park board who looked the place over in the fall and decided what should be done.

TURN IN YOUR CWA

VOUCHER SAT ONCE

A request for publicity has come from Captain Edward Macauley, Federal Civil Works administrator in San Francisco and the State Auditor, W. M. Sanborn, which this paper is glad to comply with. Many vouchers for CWA work have not been turned in. Will every person in this county having such vouchers turn them in immediately to the local director. This will enable the state director to close the books and will thereby release money for circulation, a most important factor in present economic conditions. Put these vouchers in the hands of the local directors by April 23rd and do not send them to the San Francisco head office.

It must be understood that this request does not apply to vouchers rendered but which have not been paid. The latter are being put through as rapidly as is possible, taking into consideration government red tape. More than 50,000 payrolls covering up to February 8th have already been audited. The total will approximate 80,000.

GAS WATER HEATERS

URGED BY DOCTORS

Medical men of the present age find hot water to be one of the most important barriers against the spread of disease through germ infection.

For years health departments used fumigation as a means of terminal disinfection after contagious diseases; today it is recognized by important health authorities that thorough cleansing with soap and water is just as efficacious.

Dr. William H. Park, noted bacteriologist and health authority, is quoted in the statement: "I think no germ pathogenic to man can remain alive if boiling water actually reaches it even for an instant."

It would be difficult to overestimate the value to the modern household of an available supply of hot water, ready to serve at an instant's notice at any hour of the day or night. To meet this requirement mechanical science has produced the automatic gas water-heater.

The value to the housewife of this great invention is threefold. It has a health value, for the reason noted above. It has a safety value, for it is self-controlled, in which respect it is an immense improvement upon the old tank heater or boiler. It is of record that since its adoption there has been a perceptible decrease in scalding mishaps which in former days were accountable for nearly one-third of all accidental deaths resulting from injuries received in the home. Last, but by no means least, comes its labor saving value for all domestic functions involving the use of hot water. No modern household is properly equipped without one.

AMAZING FACTS

Roman ladies were convinced that the use of salt water was a sure means of attaining beauty. In modern times, salt water baths have become popular as aids to beauty and general health. It is related that when the poet, Burns, in 1779, was about to occupy a new house at Ellisland, he was escorted there by a procession of relatives in whose midst was carried a bowl of salt. This was in accordance with an ancient custom which holds that salt is an omen of good luck.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

CHURCH

"We also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement." These words from Romans comprise the Golden Text Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Doctrine of Atonement." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance" (Matt. 9: 13).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "In an age of ecclesiastical despotism Jesus introduced the teaching and practice of Christianity, affording the proof of Christianity's truth and love; but to reach his example and to test its unerring Science according to his rule, healing sickness, sin and death, a better understanding of God as divine Principle, Love, rather than personality or the man Jesus, is required." (p. 473).

CARMEL MISSIONARY SOCIETY

One of the popular speakers on the Peninsula is Mrs. Chas. E. Draper of Pacific Grove. She will tell of the attractions of the summer programs at Asilomar and the great value of the M.E.M. conference next July, at the April meeting of the Missionary Society. The time of the meeting is 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 23 in the Community Church. There will be bandage rolling in the morning at All Saints Parish House for all willing workers.

High School Notes

By Bob Scripiture

The Miyamoto brothers again starred in track events at the invitational track meet held in King City last Saturday in which Monterey took third position in the heavyweight division and second in the lightweight division. Gordon Bain also gained points for Monterey in the lightweight division.

Robert Kennedy, Carmel student, tied for first place for the entire school on the scholarship honor roll. Other students from Carmel in the first fifteen out of the complete roll of forty were William Millis and John Logan.

At special meetings of all the classes held last week for the purpose of electing nominees to run for king and queen to preside over the April Circus, Phil Walker, Ralph Lee, and James Wilson were nominated for king, while Blanche Nielson and Edith Castro were among the girls nominated.

In the citizenship or merit honor roll just announced for the third quarter, Phil Walker headed the list for the senior boys; Bernice Trowbridge placed first for the junior girls; while Jean Stewart, sophomore, was the highest among the girls in her class.

A newly organized women's swimming class at the Monterey Hi pool, directed by Mrs. M. C. Watson, girl's gym instructor in the high school, and Mrs. Edith McAlpine, former instructor at the Del Monte Lodge in Pebble Beach, was started last Wednesday April 11.

This class is open to those over eighteen years of age, who have a doctor's certificate of health and is conducted from 8 to 9 o'clock on Monday and Wednesday evening. A charge of fifteen cents is made to cover the cost of lights and laundry of towels and suits.

"Its price is so small and its value is so great that it simply doesn't pay to be without it"

Saving strength is not a luxury. It's the thrifty thing to do, in household or business.

An old subscriber tells us, who discontinued her telephone in recent months and now is ordering her service restored, "I found that my telephone saved strength and time more than I had ever dreamed, and more nickels, dimes and quarters than its monthly service costs."

Nothing does so much for so little as your telephone.

SUNSET TRUSTEES WILL ORGANIZE ON MAY 7

The Sunset trustees will hold their next meeting May 7 at which time they will organize, and did not meet Monday evening of this week as announced in last week's Sun.

The regular meeting, open to the public will be held Tuesday evening, May 8, and the second Tuesday of each month, thereafter, instead of the first Tuesday as has been the custom in the past.

Mrs. Bess Shaver of Seattle is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ora Minges. The two had not met for a good many years and are thoroughly enjoying every minute of the time.

FIRST AID CLASS IS MAKING PROGRESS

Wednesday night at 8 o'clock has been decided upon as the regular meeting night for the First Aid class under the sponsorship of the Red Cross, Dr. Willard Covault, instructor.

There was a large number present at Wednesday night's meeting and much interest is being shown.

It was decided to hold a class for boy and girl scouts at the boy scout house each Wednesday at 5 p. m., giving the youngsters the same instructions as their parents receive.

First Aid text books may be purchased at Red Cross headquarters for 60 cents. They would be of great value even to those who are unable to take the course.

Miss Lindeman and Miss Wadsworth of San Jose who have come to Carmel for a stay spent some time at their home this week.

Miss Frances Roy and mother Mrs. Bentley of San Rafael occupied Hide Away over the week-end. They are old Carmelites.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mowry left Tuesday for their Connecticut home after spending three months in Carmel in the Snow cottage on Lincoln.

Mrs. Ann James attended the wedding and reception of Miss Beatrice Blair in San Jose Sunday. Miss Blair has visited in Carmel and has a number of friends here.

Mrs. Irene Cator, postmistress, is on crutches as the result of turning her ankle several days ago. She at first thought it was only a sprain but the X-ray showed two bones cracked.

Mrs. A. J. Stoney has gone to Santa Paula to visit in the home of a son for several months. She was driven to her destination by her daughters-in-law, Mrs. A. C. and Mrs. Maurice Stoney.

Mrs. Markham Johnston who has been employed for the past few months in the Town and Country shop, is now handling the rentals for the Segal Investment company. Mrs. McCabe will take Mrs. Johnston's place in the Town and Country.

Mrs. Gertrude Wall, formerly of Carmel, came down from her Berkeley home and spent the week-end here. She was accompanied by her son Richard, Mrs. Jennie V. Cannon who brought a picture to the exhibition in the Carmel Art Gallery, and Miss Elizabeth Love, who came to paint some of Carmel's beautiful scenery. Mrs. Wall will return soon to see about organizing her summer class in pottery making.

FAME OF DOLORES BAKERY HAS SPREAD

Dolores Bakery is helping spread the fame of Carmel with its delicious breads and cakes. This week a telegram was received from New York saying: "Send to - - - - - one of your delicious birthday cakes and send me the bill."

From Beverly Hills came an order for salt rising bread, from Santa Cruz an order for date nut bread and from San Francisco a call for fruit cake.

NEW EXHIBITION AT CARMEL ART GALLERY

Monday saw the hanging of a new lot of pictures from peninsula artists in the Carmel Art gallery on Dolores, and already many have been to see the new collection. And it is well worth seeing, for here are oils from many of the best known artists of the day. Here are shown the works of William Ritschel, Armin Hanson, Arthur Hill Gilbert, Burton Boundey, M. de Neale Morgan, Alice Coming, Henrietta Shore, Rowena Abbey, Trevett, Myron Oliver, Julie Stohr, Charlotte Morgan, B. Balfour, Percy Gray, Maynard Curtis, A. F. Gay, Paul Whitman, Homer Levinson, J. V. Cannon, Charlton Fortune, Abby L. Bosworth, Josephine Culbertson, Nora Grabill, E. M. Heath, Elizabeth Strong, Edward Friston and Charles Bradford Hudson.

Mrs. Ed Payne and daughter, Miss Mae, who have been employed at the Carmel bakery for some time are leaving to spend the summer at Tassajara Springs.

WORKERS ENTHUSED OVER FUND CAMPAIGN

It was an enthusiastic gathering at the Grace Deere Velie clinic Monday evening when the workers for the hospital fund were entertained at a seven o'clock dinner after which detailed explanations of the plan were given and methods suggested for raising the needed $25,000.

To those who had not before seen the inside of the building came a delightful surprise, for with its spacious rooms and its lovely furnishings, the clinic rivals the high class hotels of the day. Many were heard to say it would not be so bad to be ill if one could be cared for there.

The rooms on one side open on a balcony which overlooks the most beautiful scenery in the country, while the four on the opposite side look upon the patio with its delightful variety of flowers.

About thirty patients may be cared for but more beds will be provided when the clinic is made into a general hospital.

The diet kitchen is a marvelous place from which 500 people may be easily fed and the laboratories are the last word in equipment.

After a delicious dinner, some of the tables were removed and the program turned over to Joseph Schoeninger, president of the fund, who called on Senator Tickle for the opening speech.

"This is not a challenge, it is an opportunity," said the senator in speaking of the offer of the board to turn the clinic over to the community when $25,000 is raised to show that the community can care for the establishment. "Mrs. Harris left this heritage and we should continue it in her name," he said.

Dr. Gray followed with a talk on the governing board, stating that each person who gives any sum of whatever amount will have a voice in choosing seven directors of the institution. The hospital must not go into debt and must not make money according to provisions of the will. Dr. Gray stated that in March, operating as a general hospital, the place cleared more than $100, this being the first time the institution had ever paid its own way.

With the securing of the $25,000 which the workers will attempt to collect before May first, one-half is to be devoted to building a surgical room and making some other needed additions, while the other half is to be deposited to guarantee the running expenses of the institution.

The doctors will work under the codes of the American College of Surgery and the American Hospital association, assuring each doctor of the community fair treatment.

It was brought out that should the communities accept this $400,000 building as a gift, no overhead would have to be charged as the endowment fund cares for this, and therefore the rates of hospitalization would be comparatively small.

Henry Dickenson explained the meaning of putting the fund in escrow when he stated that the moneys collected would be placed in the bank to be delivered only to the board chosen, or if the calamity should happen that not enough money could be raised, it would be returned to the donors. None of the fund is to be used for campaign expenses, that being donated in an entirely separate fund.

Charles McCue of the Country Club, one of the workers, gave an inspiring talk, followed by Mr. Lee, the fund campaign manager.

"The question," Mr. Lee said, "is whether they shall close the doors of this magnificent structure or whether we let it serve as a non-profit institution for the citizens of this community. I can't possibly conceive of the citizens allow-

P-T.A. TAKES OVER SALE OF WHITE SEALS

The California Congress of the P-T.A. has taken over the sale of white seals, the proceeds from which are to be used for the Society for Crippled Children.

These seals will be placed in the various stores about town and will sell for one cent each, on the same plan as red cross seals for tuberculars.

Each penny you spend for this cause will go toward helping some youngster toward a normal life.

The school children will be asked to bring their pennies to help others less fortunate.

ZONING LAW FOR COAST IS PASSED

The long fought battle over zoning to preserve the scenic beauties of the coast highway was settled Monday when the Monterey county supervisors voted four to one for the ordinance.

The ordinance affects land lying within 500 feet of the highway on each side. In most parts this means on the west to the ocean, but it excepts a strip through the Sur valley.

One commercial district will be allowed for each existing property ownership except where such ownership extends more than one mile, in which case a commercial district will be allowed for each mile of frontage. If no commercial district is established within two years, the right is revoked.

The board will supervise the architectural designs of buildings and signs in the commercial areas.

CHILDREN'S PET PARADE IN MONTEREY SATURDAY

There will be a "Children's Pet Chum Parade" Saturday, April 21, from the Monterey grammar school on Pacific street at 10 a.m.

At 1 p. m., the children's pet show will be held in the quadrangle at the school where the animals will perform, race, etc., for which prizes will be awarded.

Zip, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warner, will be among the performers.

The event is in celebration of "Be Kind to Animals Week."

WATER COMPANY MAY LOWER HYDRANT RENTS

Through its manager, D. W. Scripture, the Monterey County Water Works company has announced its willingness to make a cut in the hydrant rentals for the three peninsula cities without an expensive hearing before the commission.

A saving of $2400 a year to the three cities will thus be effected, Carmel's part of this being $546 per year on her 90 hydrants.

If granted, the reduction is to be considered as temporary, according to Chester Loveland, president of the company, speaking at a meeting in Monterey Tuesday.

Mr. Loveland further said that the coming years will probably bring higher water rates for the peninsula, since with increase in population the company will be compelled to make heavier investments.

Another interesting statement by Mr. Loveland was to the effect that the gross revenue of the company had dropped off almost $50,000 a year during the past few years and a hearing before the commission would probably result in an increase of rates at the present time, instead of a decrease.

ing such an opportunity to pass. "In Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel, there is a definite feeling that the money can be raised and I know it can. The building would not be sold. It would be closed. We have already secured donations to the amount of $5,000. We are not seeking large donations although this one woman donated the $400,000 and the endowment fund."

MADAME ORLOVA WILL TELL OF TERROR REIGN

Madame Barry Orlova will present at the Community Playhouse on Friday evening, April 27, a lecture-forum entitled, "Russia, Yesterday and Today," being personal experiences as based on her eight years in Russia before, during and after the war, including the red days of the early Bolshevik rule of terror. She will be introduced by Martin Flavin, the playwright who has just returned from a stay in Russia studying conditions and getting material for new dramas.

The world-wide travels of Madame Orlova as an exponent of Plastique, which is the art of combined motion and recitation, have given her ample background for authoritative words on international conditions, and in particular Russia, the most talked of nation on the modern political map.

Tickets are obtainable at Stanford's drug store.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR SUMMER PLAYS HERE

The prospect for summer plays at the Community Playhouse which have proved a great attraction to Carmel visitors, are more than unusually bright.

"Following the withdrawal of Carmel Community Players from the playhouse," said Edward Kuster, owner of the plant "the Playhouse Association, dead two years, is undertaking to maintain the continued existence of the Community Playhouse as an institution. More than three hundred Peninsula families are already enrolled for the reduced family and guest rates, with additional names coming in every day. These registrations set up no obligation to purchase tickets, but they are a very encouraging sign, nevertheless."

Besides the possibility of the first production of a new play by an important resident playwright, the Association is negotiating for the following late successes of which they hope to produce three during the summer: "Biography," "Design for Living," "Time Is a Dream," "Alien Corn," "Ah Wilderness," "Murray Hill," and "Both Your Houses."

Major production dates, aside from repeat performances when indicated, will be the week-ends of July 4-7; July 26-28, and August 9-11.

As already announced in Sun columns only bona fide residents of Monterey peninsula will be given advantage of family and guest rates. Additional registrations will be accepted for a short period by Mrs. M. V. B. McAdam, secretary of the Playhouse Association, Box 823.

FILLED GALLERY AT O'CONNELL PROGRAM

That Carmelites join with the rest of the world when it comes to loving genuine Irish music, was demonstrated by the large crowd which filled the Denny Watrous gallery last Friday evenings to hear Charles O'Connell with his program of Irish songs, which he himself accompanied on an Irish hand harp.

Mr. O'Connell had a very pleasing personality and put himself over in a big way with his audience, so that when his program was ended he was called back again and yet again for more.

He has a rich, full voice perfectly adapted to the love songs, war songs and ballads of his people.

D. B. Thorburn and party of San Francisco are in the DeForest cottage this week.
